

Grass roots art

A REAL grass dress, home-made and grown on a clothes hanger? Visitors to the National Trust's stand at the Chelsea Flower Show (May 22-25) can see more unusual creations by local artist Shelley Campbell.

Better still, local people can visit her studio in Randwick during the Stroud Valleys Open Studio event (June 9-24) and she will be happy to chat about her work.

Meanwhile, now available at tourist offices and libraries in the area is a free 36-page colour catalogue with all the information needed to plan some exciting days out during the Open Studio event.
